Wedding Announced.

Mr. M. B. Nash authorizes the announcement of the approaching marriage of his daughter, Miss Jessie Nash, to the Rev. John W. Sykes, of Hope, Ark. The wedding will take place tomorrow evening in Forrest City, Ark., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Webb, formerly of Paducah, where Miss Nash has been visiting for several weeks.

Miss Nash belongs to one of Paducah's most prominent families and is an attractive and talented girl with a wide circle of friends here and throughout Kentucky. Mr. Sykes was formerly the rector of Grace Episcopal church of this city, but for a year or more has been in charge of Grace church at Hope. He is a brilliant and eloquent preacher and is popular and notably successful in Hope. The engagement dates from Mr. Sykes' residence in this city, and it was decided to have the marriage quietly solemnized while Miss Nash was in Arkansas instead of awaiting her return here. They will make their home in Hope.

Former Paducahan Complimented.

The Baltimore (Md.) Sun of a recent date has a very complimentary notice of Mr. Calvin Hendrick, the former Paducah boy who has been made chief engineer of the sewerage construction work for the city of Baltimore. The report of the sewerage commission and advisory engineers has just been handed in, which leaves Mr. Hendrick free to push the work with the dispatch that he has displayed in the preliminaries. The engineers stated in the report "that Mr. Hendrick is the biggest engineer in his line in the country."

Mr. Hendrick attended the Paducah public schools and began his work as civil engineer in Paducah. He is possibly under 40 years of age. His rise has been something phenomenal. He has many relatives and friends in this city.

Byrd-Alexander.

The marriage of Miss Jessie Byrd to Mr. William Alexander of Lexington, Miss., will take place tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock at the Broadway Methodist church. Notwithstanding the early hour the popularity of the young couple will insure a large number of friends present. No invitations have been issued in the city. Rev. T. J. Newell will perform the ceremony and Mrs. S. H. Winstead will play the wedding music. The ushers are: Messrs. Melville Byrd, Jr., Richard Scott, Frank Cheek and D. E. Sutton. The couple will leave for Chicago immediately after the ceremony.

Registered at The Palmer today are: W. B. Stanfield, Pryorsburg, Ky.; Lloyd Draffen, Cuba, Ky.; W. H. Albritton, Duketown, Ky.; G. F. Moore, St. Louis; D. V. Youngblood, St. Louis; A. W.
